I ALSO DECLARE THAT

Section 1: for individuals that do not wish to apply for income tax relief under the double taxation convention between Italy and their country of residence

To today's date the amount of income from occasional or sporadic employment to individuals/organizations other than Università degli Studi di Padova, subject to Gestione Separata INPS contribution is:

1. below € 5.000 and equal to € _____;

2. above € 5.000 and, therefore, I have opened an account with Gestione Separata INPS (We remind you that you do not need to open a new account if you have one already open).

In both cases (please '✓' one of the following options):

- (only for individuals resident in an EU Member State) In my country of residence I am liable to pay contribution to a pension scheme and therefore in Italy I can apply to pay Gestione Separata INPS at reduced rate of 20%
- In my country I am not liable to pay contribution to a pension scheme and therefore I am liable to pay Gestione Separata INPS at ordinary rate of 27,72%

INPS contribution threshold (please '✓' one of the following options):

- total income in Italy is below INPS yearly threshold of € 99.034,00
- total income in Italy is above INPS yearly threshold of € 99.034,00 and therefore no Gestione Separata INPS contribution is due.

(In the calculation of the total income, please consider only income subject to Gestione Separata INPS)

Section 2: for individuals that do wish to apply for income tax relief under the double taxation convention between Italy and their country of residence (please '✓' the option)

- I wish to apply for income tax relief under the double taxation convention, art. no. _____, between Italy and my country of residence.

For this purpose, as specified by the convention, I enclose:

- a) a certificate issued by the income tax authority in my country of residence, stating that I'm resident there for income tax purposes
- b) any other possible supporting document required by the convention
- c) copy of the relevant passport pages (on which are shown: personal details, photograph, country of issue, passport issue and expiry dates and passport number).
