

Photo: M. Vezzaro

MOBILITY & HUMANITIES
SEMINAR

MOVING TOGETHER
ACROSS DISCIPLINES
TRANSDISCIPLINARY EXCHANGES
ON MOBILITIES RESEARCH

An online research seminar between members of the
Mobilities in Literature and Culture Research
Centre, University of Surrey
MoHu Centre for Advanced Studies in Mobility and Humanities, University of Padua

29 NOVEMBER 2023
11.00 AM – 12.30 PM (GMT)

Participants:

University of Surrey: Gabriele Lazzari (referent),
Constance Bantman, Charlotte Mathieson, Lena
Mattheis

University of Padua: Giada Peterle (referent),
Margherita Cisani, Laura Lo Presti, Chiara Rabbiosi,
Tania Rossetto

Detailed program

Zoom Meeting: <https://unipd.zoom.us/j/82361474730>

11.00 – 11.45 (GMT) | Brief introductory discussion on our research interests and approaches (individual presentations, 3 minutes each):

- What are the main (inter)disciplinary areas and theoretical frameworks that inform your work? (framing your research)
- How do mobile theories, methods and concepts of im/mobilities feature in your research? (framing your research theories/methods within mobility studies: examples welcome)
- Choose a recent mobilities-related academic publication or research project that you are working on and would like to share

11.45 – 12.00 (GMT) | Q&A session

12.00 – 12.30 (GMT) | Thinking futures (shared discussion on the partnership):

- Are there any activities we could develop through this partnership (joint seminars, workshops, etc.)?
- Are there activities you are already organizing or participating to that could benefit from a collaboration with the partner?
- Do you know of any funding opportunities we could consider for a joint application?