

AVTARCHIA

Workshop

January 23rd - 24th 2026

Dipartimento di Economia e Impresa
Università di Catania
Palazzo delle Scienze, Aula 6
Corso Italia 55, Catania

FROM DEGLOBALIZATION TO AUTARKY: CRISIS AND METAMORPHOSIS OF ITALIAN ECONOMY IN THE 1930S

Organizers: Marco Bertilorenzi (Università di Padova), Francesco Chiapparino (Università Politecnica delle Marche), Mario Perugini (Università di Catania)

Programme

Friday 23 January 2026

09.30-10.00 - Welcome address

Marco Bertilorenzi (Università di Padova), Mario Perugini (Università di Catania), Francesco Chiapparino (Politecnica delle Marche)

10.00-12.30

Session I: the Prin 2022 project “From deglobalization to autarky: crisis and metamorphosis of Italian economy in the 1930s”

Marco Bertilorenzi (Università di Padova) e Mario De Prosopo (Università di Padova), International trade and foreign direct investments in the Italian autarky. New perspectives

Francesco Chiapparino (Politecnica delle Marche), Agriculture, crisis and autarky in 1930s Italy

Marianna Astore (Università dell'Insubria), Mario Perugini (Università di Catania) and Michele Santoro (Università di Catania), The Bank of Italy's industrial intervention from the Great crisis to autarky

12.30-13.30 - Lunch

13.30-16.00

Session II: Firms and industries in an autarkic economy

Fabio Di Vita and Mario Perugini (Università di Catania), Between rhetoric and reality: the Italian mining industry during the interwar period

Giovanni Favero (Università Ca' Foscari di Venezia), Foreign multinationals in Italy: the case of Smalterie Venete

Tancredi Salamone (Scuola Superiore Sant'Anna), Internationalisation of Italian technology (1900-1939)

Fernando Salsano (Università di Roma Tor Vergata), The impact of autarky on the Italian construction industry

16.00-16.30 - Coffee break

16.00-18.30

Session III: “Autarky or autarkies? Toward an international comparison”

Roman Koester (Universität der Bundeswehr München), Financial preconditions of autarky policy in the 1930s

Andrew Perchard (University of Otago, New Zealand), Preparing for the next war: British imperial minerals intelligence and planning in the 1930s

Simon Renner (Norwegian University of Science and Technology (NTNU)), Anti-blockade strategies in 1930s: a comparison between Italy and Germany

Jonas Scherner (Norwegian University of Science and Technology (NTNU)), Nazi Germany's Autarky Policy: the current state of research

Saturday 24 January 2026

9.30-12.00

Session IV: The debate on autarky: economists and managers

Fabrizio Bientinesi (Università di Pisa), “Di necessità virtù”: the debate on autarky in Italy in the 1930s

Valerio Cerretano (Università di Firenze), From exchange controls to import-substitution and export-led industrialisation. Some insights from the Italian experience of the 1930s

Giacomo Gabbuti (Scuola Superiore Sant'Anna), Income distribution in Italy, 1901-1973: a new perspective from dynamic social tables

Bruno Settis (Università di Bologna), An Italian engineer during the autarky period: Ugo Gobbato

12.00-13.00

Final Roundtable: toward a global history of Italian autarky (book proposal)

13.00 - Lunch

Organizers: Marco Bertilorenzi (Università di Padova), Francesco Chiapparino (Università Politecnica delle Marche), Mario Perugini (Università di Catania)